A modern living room interior featuring a large blue sectional sofa with several cushions in red, beige, and brown. Two dark wood armchairs with brown leather upholstery are positioned in the foreground. A row of ten small, round, white pendant lights hangs from a black track on the ceiling. To the left is a large potted plant with broad green leaves. To the right is a tall, dark wood shelving unit with various decorative items. The floor is covered in a grey carpet. The overall lighting is dim, with the pendant lights providing the main illumination.
