

EAU™

HAND-BLOWN GLASS

A decorative globe pendant built around the character of hand-blown opal glass. Eau brings subtle material variation, softness, and craft to spaces where the globe itself is the design statement.

ATLA™

ILLUMINATED MOLDED ACRYLIC

An architectural globe platform built around consistency, scale, and performance. Atla uses a seamless illuminated acrylic diffuser to deliver clean luminance across a wider range of sizes, applications, and configurations.
